U.S.-Ukraine Third-Country Code-Share Services Case
Docket OST-2004-17373

Notice Extending Procedural Dates

On March 19, 2004, the Department issued a Notice inviting U.S. certificated air carriers interested in using the service opportunity available in the U.S.-Ukraine market to file applications no later than March 26, with answers due by March 31 and replies by April 5.

On March 19, 2004, American Airlines filed a motion requesting an extension of the period for filing answers from March 31, 2004, to April 2, 2004, and the date for filing replies from April 5, 2004, to April 7, 2004. American states that United Air Lines, the only other prior applicant for U.S.-Ukraine third-country code-share services, and Continental Airlines have no objections to the extension of the answer and reply dates as proposed.

We see no prejudice to any party or to the public interest from this extremely limited delay, and accordingly, we have decided to grant American Airlines' motion and will extend the answer and reply dates as requested.

Therefore, acting under authority assigned to the Director, Office of International Aviation, 14 CFR Part 385, we establish a date of April 2, 2004, for the filing of answers and the date of April 7, 2004, for filing replies.

Paul L. Gretch, Director
Office of International Aviation
